Fair treatment at work

EU Directive 2000/78/ec of 27 November 2000 provides a framework that ensures equal treatment in the workplace of citizens of the European Union, regardless of their religion or belief, disabilities, age or sexual orientation.

EU Directive 2000/43/EC of 29 June 2000 ensures equal treatment between persons irrespective of racial or ethnic origin.

EU Directive 76/207/EEC of 9 February 1976 ensures equal treatment of men and women as regards access to employment, vocational training, promotion and working conditions.

The UK Equality Act of October 2010 bans unfair treatment and helps achieve equal opportunities in the workplace and in wider society.

Fairtrade is about better prices, decent working conditions, and fair terms of trade for farmers and workers in developing countries.
