

KS4:
Dressing for work

Does it matter what you wear at work?

Do you have a right to wear whatever you want?

Does your employer have a right to tell you what to wear?

Would you wear different clothes if you worked

- In a shop
- In a bank
- At the supermarket checkout
- In an office
- In a factory
- On the land
- As a sales person

If you are a policeman or in the forces or a security guard or a cleaner, you wear a uniform that is supplied to you.

If your employer wants you to wear special clothes, would you expect him/her to provide them?